Now Sing We of the Brave of Old

SLT #107

Dawson / Palestrina (Monk)

1. Now sing we of the brave of old who would not sell them-selves for gold,
2. Of those who fought a good - ly fight for lib - er - ty, for truth and right,
3. Who, when no glean did point the way, pressed ev - er on, by night, by day,
4. Who long the world's old sor - rows bore and toiled and loved and suf - fered sore, yet left us righ - es ma - ni - fold; Al - le - lu - ia!

their pa - tient love their chief - est might; Al - le - lu - ia!
and, spite of pain, did ev - er say Al - le - lu - ia!
and, be - ing dead, live ev - er - more; Al - le - lu - ia!
